

Percival Guildhouse Dayschool 7th July 10-4

Clare Pentlow

Modular Origami

All materials provided.

An introducing to modular origami and what it is.

-The different types of paper and where to find them.

-Different types/names of fold

Folding the initial module and joining.

Finding ways to creatively use and expand upon the initial module.

Different ways to use the final piece.

If the above has been completed and the participants are happy to move on

-Folding a new module connecting and creating as above.

